

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade 4

Unit 3, Lesson 1 - What evidence in the text helps you to infer how many bedrooms there are in the house on Mango Street?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade 4

Unit 3, Lesson 2 - Complete the sentence below to convey how the narrator feels about the Loomis Street flat.

I think the most appropriate word to describe the narrator's feelings is _____ because the chapter says _____

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade 4

Unit 3, Lesson 3 - What is evidence that Esperanza cares about how others see her?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade 4

Unit 3, Lesson 4 - What is the biggest difference between Esperanza and her mother?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade 4

Unit 3, Lesson 5 - Do you think Esperanza literally meant the windows were so small they couldn't let any air in? Would her family be able to live inside a house without any air?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade 4

Unit 3, Lesson 6 - How did you use feedback to help you revise your writing? Why is it important to listen to feedback?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade 4

Unit 3, Lesson 7 - How does Esperanza feel about Rachel? Use evidence from the story to support your response.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade 4

Unit 3, Lesson 8 - Today we looked at the difference between what other people see and what Esperanza's community knows. What are the differences between them?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade 4

Unit 3, Lesson 9 - How do you think Esperanza's perspective changes through the vignette we read today?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade 4

Unit 3, Lesson 10 - Esperanza feels like her wish is selfish. What do you think Esperanza's wish was? Find clues in the text to back up your answer and make sure you put lines from the text in quotation marks.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade 4

Unit 3, Lesson 11 - The word empathy means "the ability to understand and share the feelings of another." How do you see Esperanza's empathy grow through the vignettes?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grade 4

Unit 3, Lesson 12 - What did you enjoy about writing your own aspiration story? Give an example of something you are really proud of.