

Agenda	Objectives
Welcome	By the end of this session, participants will be able to:
The Science of Reading <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Matthew effect & Amplify's solution● Scarborough's rope	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● choose one activity from the Chocolat lesson and explain the teacher's role in improving analytic reading skills
Analytic reading in Amplify <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Close reading in Amplify● Analytic reading cycle● Academic discussions	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● list two systems that need to be in place to create an environment where a variety of responses are accepted, valued, and discussed
Chocolat lesson <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Experience an analytic reading lesson as an adult learner<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Re-reading○ Paraphrasing○ Collaborating for understanding○ Independent writing	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● explain the significance of academic discussion and independent writing in reading instruction
Chocolat lesson debrief <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Engaging students in analytic reading● Accessing the text● Participation and equity● Writing and sharing● Analytic reading best practices
Academic discussions <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Systems and culture● Student moves● Teacher moves● Types of academic discussions
Wrap-up	