Welcome to the Trade Book Collection Guide!

Introduction to the Trade Book Guides

Each book in our authentic literature collection was selected specifically to support and enhance the content of the K-2 Knowledge Domains. These anchor texts are intended for use as an introduction to each domain—engaging students, piquing their curiosity, and building initial background knowledge—before diving into the deeper content of the domain Read-Alouds.

Every book has an instructional guide that includes the following:

- Author and illustrator
- Book summary
- The Essential Question of the Knowledge domain, connecting the book to the domain
- Key Tier 2 and Tier 3 vocabulary words found in the book
- A group activity to reinforce and extend students' knowledge and understanding
- A performance task to help gauge students' comprehension of concepts in the text
- · Writing prompts to expand understanding and critical thinking
- Text complexity ratings and descriptors for quantitative, qualitative, and reader/task categories

Detailed information about text complexity ratings and descriptors; additional uses for the books before, during, and after domain instruction; and the complete list of domains and books for each grade level can be found in the More About the Books section of this guide.

Additional Uses for the Book

Before the Domain: After completing the activities in the Trade Book Guide, you may use these additional activities before beginning the domain:

- Create a K-W-L chart about the domain topic.
- Have students respond with pictures and words in a journal entry.
- Brainstorm possible vocabulary words from the book that might be used in the Read-Alouds.
- Make predictions about new content/ideas students might learn in the domain.

During the Domain: Midway through the domain instruction, or during a Pausing Point, reread the book to emphasize teaching points in the lessons. You may also use one of the activities below:

- Create a KWL chart or add to one already in progress.
- Have students use pictures and words to connect ideas between domain content and the book.
- Discuss how content in the book supports the content from the Read-Aloud (i.e., how it is similar or how it helps us understand more).
- Make a list of ideas or concepts from the book that were new.
- Have students create a vocabulary picture journal.
- Have students respond to a different writing prompt listed in the guide.

After the Domain: Conclude the unit by reading a trade book as a way to make connections outside the Read-Aloud text. The book can be used as inspiration for a wide range of culminating projects and activities. Use one of the activities below to help extend and strengthen learning:

- Use a Venn diagram to compare and contrast domain content and the book.
- Create a T-chart with vocabulary from both the domain and the book.
- Have students respond with pictures and words in a journal entry, or respond to a different writing prompt listed in the guide.
- Discuss how and if the book helped students learn something new about the domain topic.
- Use the book as an anchor text for additional writing activities.

Born in 1815, she is already taller than her mother and builds her first log cabin at age two. At age twelve, she earns the nickname Swamp Angel when she saves the settlers' covered wagons from sinking in Dejection Swamp. One summer, the settlers organize a competition to get rid of a large, pesky bear called Thundering Tarnation. After no one else is able to stop Thundering Tarnation, Swamp Angel enters the competition and single-handedly saves the day.

Vocabulary Routine

- Tier 2 Vocabulary Words
- settlers prowled wily reputation taunt muck commenced

Performance Task

Have students list the key elements of a fictional story without referencing the previous chart.

Students should be able to list three of the following elements:

- character
- setting
- beginning
- middle
- end
- plot

Writing Prompt

Have students write a series of sentences to describe the plot of the story. The sentences should include what happened in the beginning, middle, and end of the story. Encourage students to write in complete sentences.

Talking About Text

After the initial reading of the book, use the routine below to discuss additional text elements.

- Author's Purpose
 - Ask students why they think the author wrote the book. Accept all reasonable answers, such as to tell a story or to entertain. Students will gain a better understanding of text purposes over time.
- Author's Craft
 - Explain that authors choose words carefully to make what they write more interesting. Ask students what they noticed about the story, especially about the words or structure. Students are just starting to learn about text, so there is no expectation that they learn or use text terminology at this time.
 - » Answers may vary but could include exaggeration, descriptive words and phrases, dialogue, etc.
- Compare and Contrast Texts (after Domain 1, Lesson 5)
 - Have a discussion about the similarities and differences between Swamp Angel and Lesson 5, "Paul Bunyan." Create a Venn Diagram or other graphic organizer to complete during the discussion.
